About CAL FIRE

The men and women of the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CAL FIRE) are dedicated to the protection and preservation of over 57 million acres of California's privately owned resources. In addition, the Department provides several emergency services to 22 of the State's 58 counties on behalf of local governments.

CAL FIRE's values represent the pride, skill, and unwavering dedication of the individuals of the Department who show the values and qualities that create a Department in which everyone can thrive. CAL FIRE's organizational culture is built upon a set of core values, in which every employee in the Department, regardless of department role, plays an integral part in emergency response, public safety, resource management, wilderness protection, and training for the Department's future and goals.
